Ely B. Fitch, of Lawrence county, Bradstreet's traveling reporter for Eastern Kentucky, was a visitor at Dr. Taulbee's several days, and left for home on the 26th of April, accompanied by his daughter Emma, who has been sojourning with us for the last year. He did not fail to leave $1.00 for THE HERALD.

Drain pipe of all sizes and shapes can be found at E. F. RIDDELL'S, Main street, Mt. Sterling.

We want a few hundred more subscribers, and will take anything marketable at the market price as pay. Let our friends go to work and get them up for us. Many of the presents we will give away are very handsome. Every new subscriber and every old subscriber who renews before Wednesday, June 16, will be entitled to a chance.

If you want a good job of tin, copper or sheet-iron work, call on B. F. RIDDELL, Main street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

When Geo. Rice, the carpenter, first commenced farming, near Maytown, about a year since, he solicited information from his neighbors, the majority of whom were practical farmers. After receiving instructions from each of them, he would inquire, "Have you a crib of corn?" If answered in the affirmative, he would then follow with another, "Did you raise it?" If these questions were answered satisfactorily, he accepted the advice, with thanks, but if not, he told them they were not capable of giving advice.

The competition force pump has no superior; also chain and section pumps always in stock at E. F. RIDDELL'S, Mt. Sterling.

The May number of Demorest's Magazine is very attractive. Mrs. Hart's serial, "That Other Person," is continued, and there are several excellent short tales. "A Walk in Paris," and "The Family in Guise," both illustrated, are very readable articles. Mrs. Croly contributes "What Money Will Buy," and W. Jennings Demorest, "A Moral Revolution Pending." "Art Work in Metal," "Home Art and Home Comfort," and "From Pencil to Brush," will prove acceptable to many. The frontispiece of this number is a beautiful oil picture, "At the Spring."

Dr. Ragland's Magic Verme is the best. It is safe and sure. Sold by J. T. & F. Day, Hazel Green.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Hazel Green postoffice: Robt. J. Seave, Mrs. Mollie White, John W. White, Polly Banks, Rosa B. Cecil, Mrs. Maggie Holmes, Mrs. Isabel Lykins, C. L. Lemon, G. W. Lacy, Miss Gillyann Mainin, Lewis A. Franklin, Maggie Gardner, Antony Ferguson. Persons calling for any of the above letters, will please say "advertised."

J. H. EVANS, P. M.

Dr. Ragland's Tetter Ointment cures Tetter, Scaldhead, Itch and all skin eruptions. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Complimentary.
[Sentinel-Democrat.]
Spencer Cooper has bought out the interest of J. Miles Little in THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD, and again Mr. Cooper is "playing a lone hand," so he says. Mr. Cooper is a competent editor, and publisher and makes an excellent paper, and THE HERALD deserves the success and popularity it has attained. The people of Wolfe and neighboring counties should rally to its support. Many of the business men of Mt. Sterling have used, and are using, the advertising columns of that paper with profit, and we would advise others to "go and do likewise," for by so doing they will add to their trade consequently swell their treasury boxes. Try it.

Swango Springs.
Persons living near the Swango Springs who desire to use its water, will favor the proprietor of the same, by first calling upon him before helping themselves. Those at a distance who desire the water shipped to their address, will write the undersigned, who is the sole manager of the spring, and their orders will be promptly filled. HARRISON SWANGO.

Our Lexington Friends.

The following parties will greatly endeavor themselves to the people of this section, and very materially assist the cause of education, if they will each interest themselves in securing contributions of books from the members of their respective churches for the Hazel Green Academy library: Wm. Price, of Bassett & Sons, and Robt. McMichael, of the Christian churches, respectively; R. G. Elliott and W. D. Bryant, of the Baptist churches, respectively; Hiram Shaw and Geo. Spencer, of the Methodist churches, respectively; Mrs. Fanny Pew and J. R. Sharp, of the Presbyterian churches, respectively. These parties have all been selected because of their well-known zeal in religious and educational matters, and it lies within their power to do much good in both fields. Many persons have a surplus of books which they will donate for this purpose. The library is to be free to all, but under the control of Hazel Green Academy, that the books may not be abused or destroyed. Each person donating a book or books will please write his or her name therein, and the above persons can agree upon a repository. When a sufficient number is deposited, notice may be sent to Judge G. B. Swango or this office, and funds will be forwarded to pay for boxing and shipping. Lexington papers will confer a favor by copying this notice.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to me, either by note or account, will please call and settle the same at once, or be in readiness to do so when A. F. Johnson, who is authorized to collect and receipt for same, calls on you. I need the money, and am compelled to have at least a portion of it.
G. B. SWANGO.

REV. MR. TALMAGE.

His Opinion of Newspapers and Editors.
One of the great trials of this newspaper profession is the fact that they are compelled to see more of the shams of the world than any other profession. Through every newspaper office, day by day, go the weaknesses of the world, the vices that want to be puffed, the virtues that want to be wrecked, all the dull speakers who want to be thought eloquent, all the meanest that want to get their names noticed gratis in the editorial columns in order to save the tax of the advertising column, all the men who want to be set right who never were right, all the crack-brained philosophers, with story as long as their hair and as gloomy as their finger nails, in mourning because bereft of soap; all the itinerant bawlers who come to stay five minutes and stop an hour. From the editorial and reportorial room all the follies and shams of the world are seen day by day, and the temptation is to believe neither in God, man nor woman. It is no surprise that in your profession there are some skeptical men.
The world seems to have a grudge against a man who, as they say, gives his living by his wits; and the day laborer says to the man of literary toil: "You come down here and shove a plane, and hammer a shoe last, and break cobblestones, and earn an honest living as I do, instead of sitting there in idleness scribbling." But God knows there are no harder working people in all the earth than the newspaper people of this country. It is no matter of hard times; it is a characteristic of all times. Men have a better appreciation for that which appeals to the stomach, than that which appeals to the brain. They have no idea of the immense financial and intellectual exertions of the newspaper press. They grumble because they have to pay five cents a copy, and wish they had only to pay three, or paying three, they wish they had only to pay one.

Druggists and merchants of either Wolfe, Breathitt, Morgan or Magoffin will call on J. T. & F. Day for any of Dr. Ragland's medicines, as they are wholesale agents for the counties mentioned above.

WOLFE COUNTY.

LAMPTON, May 1.—Lycurgus Kincaid, who had taken a tie raft to Frankfort on the first spring tide, was returning home on last Sunday, having between $800 and $500 on his person. When in about two miles of home he was shot three times by some robber or robbers and killed outright, and all his money taken. He and his brother-in-law, Baker, had separated on the Townsend hill. Baker said the Kincaid had two parcels of money, the paper being in a bill book in his hip pocket and the coin in his pants pocket. His coat and vest were rolled up and strapped to his neck pouch fashion, and his pistol stuck in the end of them, so if he was assaulted it would be convenient. He was not found until two days after he was killed. His coat, vest and pistol was on his person as described by Baker, and his knife was in his pocket. Nothing was missing but his pocket books and money. George Spencer, an uncle of Kincaid, was in town yesterday after the sheriff to help ferret out the guilty parties and bring them to justice. Sheriff Center being absent on business our efficient and energetic jailer, G. W. Drake, went with Spencer into the neighborhood in which the murder was committed. Later—G. W. Drake returned from the scene of the murder and says there is great excitement over the affair. He says they have one man, Joe Spencer, under arrest but don't think he is the guilty man. Drake thinks, however, that he has the guilty man located, who is a man not suspected by the friends of Kincaid. Mr. Drake will go back immediately to further investigate the matter.

Born.—On the 20th, to the wife of C. C. Hanks, a son. Mr. Hanks is too busy at his saw mill to name him. Also on the 27th, to the wife of C. C. Williams, a son. Mr. Williams is too busy making the canvass for chairman of the board of trustees of the town of Campton to name the boy.

Docket of the Wolfe circuit court, May term, 1886.—Common law causes 20, appearances 24, commonwealth causes 120, on all of which process has been issued by the clerk and executed and returned by the sheriff.

By Ragan threw a stone at his horse this morning and broke his thigh short off. Sy is now afoot. Boys, think twice before you throw one.

Died.—On the 28th, Barney Tyler, of whooping cough and congestion of the brain, aged two years. Son of John Tyler.

Col. Lilly, of Irvine, is in town this morning looking to his professional interests.

GILMORE, May 1.—Your correspondent was in Daysborough a few days since and saw there what he never saw before, a plow in operation without the aid of either man or horse, and it was doing good work. Behold, it was a woman plowing a mule. And this is not all. The writer was passing by Uncle John Rose's farm yesterday and there saw a man plowing a yoke of cattle with mules on, which under the ancient law would have been a violation, where the scripture says, "Muzzle not the ox that treadeth out the corn."

We see in our travels through the country that the farmers are very badly behind with their crops, notwithstanding this seems to be a forward spring, at least fifteen days ahead of last. But now and then the clock of the corn planter is heard. Wheat looks well where there is any sown, but the acreage is small compared with former years owing to the scarcity of seed last fall.

J. D. Graham, who was arrested and taken to Prestonsburg a few days ago, has not returned. We learn from a Mr. Combs, whose son was taken off, that Graham and young Combs were bound over together with several others, about 15 in number.

Mrs. Logan Childers is certainly the largest woman in Wolfe county. I believe she will weigh 300 pounds. David Rose has a mare with twin colts, both well formed and doing well.

A. J. Lindon, of this place, is in very bad health.

Dr. Ragland's Lightning Relief is a sure cure for Rheumatism and Neuralgia. J. T. & F. Day are wholesale agents for Eastern Kentucky.

MORGAN COUNTY.

GRASSY CREEK, April 29.—John Lyons, of Menifee county, was the guest of Wm. Havens on last Sunday and Sunday night, and left Monday for the beautiful town of Hazel Green. John was looking after some debts due him in this section. He said that under the present administration he did not need money, but could use a few dollars if he could get it.

David Carter, who has lived near this place for a number of years, died on the 26th inst. He was about 90 years old, and highly respected in our community. He leaves a wife 80 years old and a large family of children, grand children, and great grand children to mourn his loss. There has been a larger amount of timber run out of this creek during the past winter and spring than ever before, and it brought considerable money to our country.

Wm. Havens has a plug cow which gives six gallons of milk per day, and says he don't want any man to dispute his word until they see the cow milked.

D. N. Ferguson has sold his interest in the mill at this place to Wheeler & Son, who are now sole proprietors.

S. W. Havens has a nice lot of fat hogs which he is offering for sale. They will weigh 125 pounds.

Corn planting is the order of the day just now, and farmers are very busy putting in their crops.

J. S. Wheeler of this place, bought a yoke of fine 4 year old cattle of Green Allen for $115.

We have had very dry weather for the last three weeks, but on the 28th we had a good shower.

J. A. C. Murphy, of Ezel, had 25 bushels of corn stolen from his farm on this creek.

Judge John E. Cooper passed through here on the 27th inst., en route for home.

Cyrus B. Perry lost a very fine colt the other night, which was worth $50.

Born.—To the wife of Joel Havens, a son, Chester A. Arthur.

ON THE WING.

WEST LIBERTY, May 3.—Your correspondent, together with the beauty and chivalry of West Liberty, had the pleasure of attending the examination and entertainment at Ezel on Thursday and Friday. Ezel can boast as good society as any town in Eastern Kentucky, and is a most delightful place to spend a few days for recreation. The people seem to like with each other in trying to be clever and entertaining the most company during entertainments. The instructors proved herself to be one of the most accomplished teachers of this section judging from the way the pupils acquitted themselves in the examination. A great many persons, some 25 or 30, attended, but limited space deprives us of mentioning their names. Suffice to say that all were amply paid for going, and the general sentiment of the returning crowd was, "We never enjoyed ourselves better in our lives."

Misses Anna and Ada Kendall, Lula Phillips, Myrtle Cole, Florence Cox, Annie Kendall, Maggie Carter, Minnie Ward and Willie Ladd were the young ladies of this place who attended the entertainment at Ezel last week.

W. A. Parsley and C. H. Baker, of Louisville, and C. W. Shively, Cincinnati, are at the Kendall House, and will leave for Ezel today.

Mr. Easting, of Lexington, general agent for the new American sewing machine, was registered at the Kendall House last week.

Married.—At the residence of the bride's father, near this place, on Thursday evening, John Dehart to Miss Jennie Caskey.

Willie Phillips has gone to Floyd and Pike on business.

V. M. Pieratt, of Grassy, is in our midst. Mrs. John Carter is on the sick list.

CRICKET.

MAYTOWN, April 29.—R. E. Smith, representing J. M. Robinson & Co., Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday night with R. A. Childers, of this place. While here he had a very fine horse to die with lock-jaw, caused from overhear.

Abe Lawson, who has been very low with fever, is thought to be a little better. He has been very near death's door, but with the skillful attention Dr. Dixon is giving him, we think he will get up.

R. P. Phillips, representing Davis, Malory & Co., Louisville, stopped with R. A. Childers Thursday night, and sold him a nice bill of dry goods and notions.

Miss Sue Godey, charming belle of Hazel Green, came down on the hack this morning, and was met here by Jas. Dennis, who took her to Ezel.

Dr. B. F. Dixon has made quite an improvement on his dwelling house in the last ten days, which will enhance the value of it considerably.

J. T. Day passed through town yesterday, on his way home from Cincinnati, where he had been to buy goods.

Judge Wm. Lusk passed through here yesterday, en route to Rothwell Station with walnut lumber.

W. W. McGuire, of West Liberty, spent last night with his father's family near this place.

LICK SKILLER.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG, April 30.—On last Saturday night Miss Bettie Jewell, aged about 20 years, went to the house of Edward Welch, near Rothwell, to stay all night. Sometime during the night she left the house, wearing only her night clothes. Mr. W., not finding her Sunday morning, and apprehending that she had wandered into the woods, instituted search for her. On Monday afternoon, after the whole neighborhood had been aroused, she was found about one mile from Welch's concealed in a cliff. She was apparently in a temporary fit of insanity, and could give no reasonable cause for her wandering.

Mr. John A. Scott, for Pauly Bros., has arrived in town to superintend the erection of our jail. He will begin work forthwith, and in a few weeks we will have the best jail in Kentucky of its size. It will consist of two steel cells, and be completely furnished and ventilated. The walls will be of stone with metal roof, and it will be fireproof, and about as secure from escape as can be made.

Mrs. Mary Davis died near Wellington, April 28th, from the effects of a cancer. She was an old lady, and has been afflicted many years. She had long lived a christian life, and leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

Two of G. W. Sexton's boys a few days ago, while playing with an old dog on a hillside, by some means started it, and it hurt them severely.

Tony Strother and H. D. Combs have just finished papering the Presbyterian Church. We expected Dr. Williamson to preach in it last Sunday, but he failed to reach his appointment.

Some of our boys are having good luck fishing. T. T. Cope and J. J. Byrne, caught several 16 to 20 inch bass and many other good fish in Beaver Creek this week.

Married.—On the 29th inst., by Elder J. M. Adams, at the residence of the bride's father, Robt. Eggleston to Miss Ida Francis Gibson.

A saw log a few days since rolled over Edward Cope, on Gladly, bruising and straining his legs considerably.

J. C. Day has moved from town down on Beaver several miles. I. M. V.

Dr. Ragland's Pile Remedy is a sure cure for Bleeding Piles, Blind Piles, and all forms of piles. Sold by J. T. & F. Day, Hazel Green.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

JACKSON, April 30.—The following lawyers were here this week: Judge Halsey, of Mt. Sterling, Judge Riddell, of A. B. White, of Irvine, J. M. Sebastian, Col. A. H. Clark and S. P. Hogg, of Owensboro, D. K. Rawlings, of Manchester, Col. L. M. Day and J. C. Lykins, of Wolfe; S. H. Kash, of Mt. Sterling, and a number of others, whose names I did not get. Court adjourned immediately on assembling, to meet in August.

Deputy U. S. Marshall Wireman arrested and placed in jail at this place the following persons accused of "moon-shining": John Mason, Wm. Little, Louis Howard and Alex. Campbell. They are now en route to Prestonsburg.

Our subject for debate next Friday is: A firm in the reading should be a qualification for voting.

James D. Cope, aged 86 years, one of the first settlers of this county, died April 26.

Most of the sick in our town are recovering.
